IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Article 1 Insured trips

Insurance cover is provided for the relevant insured trip for social, domestic, pleasure, educational or commercial business purposes commencing from the home country or country of residence to the State of Qatar as per the period stated on the insurance policy. The maximum duration for single trips under the 6 months policy is 31 days.

Article 2 Beginning and end of insurance cover

The insurance cover

- a) must be concluded for the duration of the entire trip;
- b) begins in the Travel Cancellation Insurance (Part C) with the conclusion of the insurance contract, at the earliest on booking the trip, and ends when the trip commences (commencement/start of trip). In the Cover for Travel Delays on the outward journey to Qatar/ Home Country (Part C.4), the cover ends when the outward journey has been completed;
- c) begins in the other insurance packages at the agreed point in time, at the earliest on starting the trip (start of the trip), and ends at the agreed point in time, but at the latest on ending the insured trip;
- d) will extend beyond the agreed point in time if the scheduled end of the trip is delayed for reasons beyond the control of the insured person.

Article 3 Premium

1. The premium is due immediately after conclusion of the insurance policy and must be paid when the insurance certificate is issued.
2. If the premium has not been paid when the insured event occurs, the Insurer will be released from the obligations to make payments, provided that the policy-holder is responsible for non-payment.

Article 4 Exclusions

1. Persons over age 65 are only covered by the insurance if they can provide a medical certificate stating that they are in good health and condition and prior to the start of the journey.
2. Loss or damage resulting from war, civil war, events similar to war, civil commotions, pandemics, nuclear energy or other ionising radiation, strikes and other forms of industrial action, requisition, and other events relating to Act of God.
3. However, there shall be insurance cover if the insured person is unexpectedly affected during the insured trip by an event involving a war, civil war, events similar to war or civil commotions. This insurance cover lapses at the end of the seventh day after the commencement of a war or civil war.
The extension will not apply to trips in states where a war or civil war is already in progress in the territory of the state at the time when the insured person enters the state. The extension is also not applicable to active participation in war or civil war and to consequences of an accident or illness resulting from the use of Nuclear Biological and Chemical weapons.
4. Loss or damage in connection with terrorist activity is not covered, provided the Ministry (or relevant Authority) issued a travel alert for the corresponding destination territory before the start of the trip.

Article 5 Obligations following occurrence of the insured event

1. The insured person is under an obligation,
 - a) not to do anything which might result in an unnecessary increase in costs (obligation to reduce losses);
 - b) to notify the insurer of the loss or damage immediately;
 - c) to allow the insurer to carry out any reasonable investigations into the cause and extent of its liability to make payment, truthfully to give any factual information which may be helpful for this purpose, to supply original documents in support, and, where appropriate, to release the doctors providing treatment from their duty of professional confidentiality, if knowledge of data is necessary in order to establish whether the insurer has an obligation to pay the claim and if so, the level of payment to be made.
2. If any of the above obligations are intentionally not met, the insurer will be released from its liability to make payment. The obligation to make payment remains to the extent that the failure to meet obligations is due neither to wilful intent nor to gross negligence. If an obligation is not met by virtue of gross negligence, the insurer will be entitled to reduce the level of payment to be made proportionately to the seriousness of the negligence of the insured person. The insurer will still be liable to make payment to the extent that the failure to meet the obligation does not affect the process of establishing whether the insurer has an obligation to pay the claim and if so, the level of payment to be made, unless the insured person has acted fraudulently.

Article 6 Payment of benefit

1. Once the cause and extent of the insurer's liability has been established, the benefit must be paid within two weeks.
2. Any costs which the insured person incurs in foreign currencies will be reimbursed in QAR at the exchange rate applicable on the day on which these costs were paid by the insured person.

Article 7 Special reasons for lapse of cover

The insurer is released from its liability to make payment if, after the occurrence of the insured event, the insured person deliberately attempts to deceive the insurer as to the circumstances which are material to the cause or extent of its liability to make payment or intentionally or deliberately makes untrue statements, particularly in the claim notification, even when this does not cause loss or damage to the insurer. In the case of intentional wrongdoing, the insurer will still be liable to make payment to the extent that the failure to meet the obligation does not affect the process of establishing whether there is a claim or the process of establishing whether the insurer has an obligation to pay the claim and if so, the level of payment to be made.

Article 8 Benefits under other insurance policies

If an insured event occurs and benefit can be claimed under other insurance policies, those liability obligations shall take precedence. This shall also be applicable if a subordinated liability has been agreed in one of those insurance policies. The claims of the insured person shall not be affected and shall not be impaired by this circumstance. If the insured person reports the insured event to the insurer, this insurance policy shall perform first and the insurer will settle the claim in accordance with the terms and conditions of insurance.

Article 9 Domestic jurisdiction/Applicable law

1. Jurisdiction for actions against the Insurer will be vested in the courts of Qatar.

Article 10 Statute of limitations

1. Claims arising from the insurance policy shall lapse within three years. The limitation of time commences at the end of the year in which the claim arose and came to the attention of the insured person or must have come to that person's attention.
2. If the insured person has notified his/her claim to the insurer, the limitation of time is suspended until the insured person has received the decision from the insurer.

Article 11 Notices and declarations of intent

Notices and declarations of intent of the insured person, the policyholder and the insurer must be in writing, unless expressly agreed to the contrary. Insurance agents shall not be authorised for acceptance.

Article 12 Pre-existing Medical Conditions

This insurance does not cover any claim caused by or arising from any

- a) medical condition for which the Insured Person is, at the time of booking the Journey or the Date of Issue (whichever is later) on a waiting list for in-patient treatment or has required in-patient treatment during the previous 6 months;
- b) serious illness suffered by the Insured Person during the 6 months immediately prior to booking the Journey or the Date of Issue (whichever is later);
